August 17, 2025

I. Bildad's 3rd Speech – Job 25

A. "God is great, Job." – True, but a bit off topic.

B. "Job, you can't claim perfection before God." – Yet Job had never claimed this.

II. Job's 3rd Response to Bildad – Job 26

A. "Wow…such incredible wisdom you demonstrate…who taught you such amazing knowledge?"

B. "You think you can wax eloquent about God's glory and power, let me show you how it's done…"

1. God's all-seeing gaze pierces even the realm of the dead…

2. The incredible glories of creation testify to God's great and awesome majesty…

3. God has easily destroyed the most dreadful creatures in the sea and in the sky – mythical or otherwise.

4. Such realizations only scratch the surface of what is the infinite might and radiance of God.

III. Reflections from Job

A. We often need to be hit over the head again by the majesty of God (Job needed this far more than he knew…it will come soon).

B. The legitimately terrifying power, glory, and wisdom of God highlights the truly unbelievable love and compassion He has shown us in the Incarnation and in our salvation.
